This order shall dispose of the preliminary issue which reads as follows:

"Whether it is proved that this Court has jurisdiction to entertain this application under Section 33C(2) of the I. D. A., 1947?"

2. The employer, in its written statement, has raised the preliminary objection in respect of jurisdiction of this Court to entertain this application under Section 33C(2) of the Act.

3. I have heard the parties and I feel that the objection raised is justified. Infact, under Section 33C(2), the Labour Court has to be specified by the Government as the competent one to entertain applications under the said provision. In the instant case, there is no such specification and, therefore, this Labour Court would have no jurisdiction to entertain this application.

4. Hence, I pass the following order:

O R D E R

The application filed is dismissed for want of jurisdiction in view of the fact that the Government has not specified this Court as the competent one to entertain such type of applications. No order as to costs.
